Rep. Greg Morris
R-156

Biography

Born and raised in Vidalia, Georgia, Representative Greg Morris attended the Robert Tombs Christian Academy before pursuing political science degree from the University of Georgia.

The businessman served his native county for three years as a Toombs County commissioner. Morris was first elected to the Georgia State House of Representatives in 1998. Presently, he is serving as chairman of the Banks and Banking Committee, as well as a member on the Appropriations, Code Revision, Natural Resources & Environment, and Rules committees.

Serving as the spokesman under the Gold Dome for House District 156, he represents the communities in parts of Appling, Jeff Davis, Montgomery and Toombs counties.

He and his wife, Amy, have two wonderful children, Andrew and Jonathan. The Morris family attends the Smith Street Baptist Church in Vidalia.