

Rep. Taylor Bennett (D-80)

Biography

Taylor Bennett came to Georgia from St. Louis, Missouri to attend the Georgia Institute of Technology where he played quarterback for the Yellow Jackets. He graduated from Georgia Tech in 2008 with a degree in International Affairs

Following his graduation, Taylor attended Louisiana Tech University to pursue an MBA and complete his NCAA eligibility. After putting his master studies on hold to pursue a professional football career that took him from the EFL in Stockholm, Sweden to the NFL's Detroit Lions, he completed his law degree at Atlanta's John Marshall Law School. Taylor currently practices law, representing a diverse group of clients while focusing predominantly on labor and employment issues

Taylor represents the citizens of District 80, which includes portions of DeKalb and Fulton counties. He was elected into the House of Representatives in 2015. He serves on the Budget & Fiscal Affairs Oversight, Judiciary, and Small Business Development committees.