

Rep. Beth Beskin
R-54

Biography

Beth Beskin represents State House District 54 in the Georgia General Assembly. She serves as a member of the Education Committee, Judiciary Committee, Regulated Industries Committee, State Planning and Community Affairs Committee, and the MARTOC Committee. She serves as Chair of the MARTOC Governance Subcommittee and as Vice-Chair of the Education Subcommittee on Innovation and Workforce Development. Beth also serves as the Chief Deputy Whip of the House Republican Caucus during the 2017 session.

Beth is an attorney licensed to practice in both Georgia and Louisiana. She is a partner in the Atlanta law firm Cohen, Cooper, Estep & Allen where she practices family law. Beth is a member of the Charles Longstreet Weltner Family Law Chapter of the American Inns of Court Foundation and a member of the Lawyers Club of Atlanta. Beth is a former geologist as well as pension plan administrator.

Beth is a member of the Board of Directors of Brandon Neighborhood Association, a member of First Presbyterian Church of Atlanta, a sustaining member of the Junior League of Atlanta, and an alumna of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Beth is married to Jim Beskin; they have two adult daughters, Alison and Claire.