

Rep. Beth Beskin
R-54

Biography

Beth Beskin is Representative-elect for Georgia State House District 54. Beth is an attorney and partner in the Atlanta law firm Cohen, Cooper, Estep & Allen where she practices family law and estate planning. Beth is also a former geologist as well as pension plan administrator.

Beth is a member of the Board of Directors of Brandon Neighborhood Association and serves as the BNA delegate to the Board of Directors of the Atlanta Memorial Park Conservancy. She is also a member of Region 3 Planning Board of the Georgia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Disabilities. She is a member of First Presbyterian Church of Atlanta, a sustaining member of the Junior League of Atlanta, an alumna of Kappa Kappa Gamma and a former member of the Princeton Parents Committee (2009-2012).

Beth is married to Jim Beskin, an orthopedic surgeon with Peachtree Orthopedic Clinic. They have two daughters, Alison, who attends University of Virginia law school, and Claire, who is a junior at Dartmouth.