

Rep. John Carson
R-46

Biography

John Carson was elected to the Georgia House of Representatives in October 2011 Special Election run-off. He represents the 46th District, which includes northeast Cobb and southeast Cherokee Counties.

An Atlanta native, John Carson was raised in a family that encouraged conservative values, the importance of education, and excellent work ethic. John's late father was an engineer for Georgia Power and small business owner. His mother raised three sons and worked in counseling roles at charitable organizations. In addition, both of John's grandfathers were middle Georgia farmers.

John has 18 years of Georgia public education, including an undergraduate in Accounting from Georgia State University, and a master's in Finance from Kennesaw State University. He is a CPA and is employed with Monarch Private Capital. John was previously employed with KPMG (Atlanta, London and New York), GE Capital and SunTrust.

John belongs to the following civic/professional organizations: WellStar Foundation Board, Cobb Chamber of Commerce, Cherokee Chamber of Commerce, Kennesaw State University Political Science Advisory Board, Anna Crawford Children's Center and the Georgia Society of CPAs. In addition, he has also been associated with: Boy Scouts of America (Eagle Scout), Cobb County Commission for Children and Youth (Treasurer, member of Executive Committee), MUST Ministries, Rotary International, YoungLife, Alpha Ministries and the Kennesaw State University Graduate Student Association (Past President).

John and his wife Beverly have been married since 2005 and have two children. Their family attends Johnson Ferry Baptist Church, and previously attended Mount Paran North Church of God for over ten years.