

State Rep. Clay Cox
(D-108)

Representative Clay Cox is the President and CEO of Professional Probation Services, a private probation, corrections, offender management and court services company that operates in more than 50 locations in five states.

Clay was the 2002 Republican nominee for Congress from Georgia's 13th Congressional District and previously served three terms in the Georgia House of Representatives from 2005-2011. While a member of the House Representative Cox's served as House Chief Deputy Whip, Chairman of the Gwinnett County legislative delegation, and as Chairman of the House Human Relations and Aging Committee. Cox was a graduate of the 2005 inaugural class of the Georgia Legislative Leadership Institute. Rep. Cox was appointed by Governor Nathan Deal to serve on the State Board of Community Health in 2011, and served as Vice Chairman until he left the Board in 2015.

He is a graduate of Western Carolina University, where he earned a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice. He was a three-year letterman in football and an All Southern Conference Scholar Athlete. He and his wife, Lisa, are the proud parents of two sons, Connor and Carson.