

Rep. Dan Gasaway
(R-28)

Biography

Dan Gasaway currently serves as the State Representative for House District 28, which includes Banks, Stephens, and a portion of Habersham County.

Dan is a 14-year resident of Banks County. He has been married to his wife Shannon, a public school teacher, for 20 years. They are members of the Presbyterian Church, and Dan is an ordained elder.

Dan was raised in Habersham County and graduated from Habersham Central in 1984. After graduating from Georgia Tech in 1988, he worked in the architecture field in Atlanta. He managed Ridgway's Inc., a large commercial printing and graphics company until 1997. In 1998, he and his wife moved to their property in Banks County, built a commercial poultry farm, and Dan continued his architectural design and construction business. For the past 14 years, Dan has been self-employed.

Since 2002, Dan has served on the Citizens Foster Care Review Panel for the Banks County Juvenile Court, and currently serves as chairman. He is an avid hunter and fisherman, and enjoys playing tennis as well as the mandolin.
