

Rep. Jeff Jones
R-167

Biography

Jeff Jones is a strong, conservative Republican who has been elected to serve as the next Georgia State Representative for District 167-Brunswick. Jeff is President/General Manager of Express Lube & Car Wash, a successful small business he and wife Lisa founded in 1994, with two locations serving Glynn County. Jeff and Lisa moved to Glynn County in early 1992 when Jeff joined ABC Home Health as its Vice President of Human Resources. Over his 20-year corporate career, Jeff served as Vice President and Corporate HR Manager, plus held other senior and mid-level management corporate positions.

Jeff has served four years as Board Chair for Safe Harbor Children's Center, having served a total of 15 years on their board. Mr. Jones also served for three years as Board Secretary for the St. Simons Christian School, and continues to volunteer at the school. Previously, Jeff served on the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) and Red Cross boards, and is active in the St. Simons Community Church in a number of volunteer positions. In early 2013, Jeff was elected Chairman of the Glynn County Republican Party, a position he vacated in March 2013 to focus his time on the campaign for the District 167 House seat.

Jeff and his family are active supporters of Habitat for Humanity, where his wife Lisa serves as Board Secretary; FCA; CareNet Pregnancy Center; The Gathering Place and Children in Action youth ministries; in addition to supporting a variety of other local charities.

Jeff and Lisa have one son, Brant (19), who is a freshman at Valdosta State University.
