

State Rep. Todd Jones
(R-25)

Biography

Representative Todd Jones represents the citizens of House District 25 which encompasses South Forsyth and North Fulton Counties. He was initially elected to the House of Representatives on November 8, 2016 and sworn into office on January 9, 2017. Todd started his second term representing District 25 on January 14, 2019. Representative Jones serves as Vice-Chairman on the Governmental Affairs, Judiciary and Science & Technology Committees. Further, Todd serves as a member of the Appropriations, Budget & Fiscal Affairs Oversight, Code Revision, Economic Development & Tourism, Education and Industry & Labor committees.

Todd's business experience has focused on triple-bottom line companies that focus on social, environmental and financial impacts. From changing K-12 education worldwide to launching energy projects in the developing world to deploying EHS software, each company created accretive, positive return on investment. During his time as a business executive he has worked with companies like Johnson Controls, Goldman Sachs, Goodyear, Cardinal Health, John Deere, Walgreens, Morgan Stanley and Cargill.

In 2010, Todd was named Co-Volunteer of the Year for the Forsyth County, Georgia Board of Education. He serves or has served recently on a variety of community executive boards including the SPES Dads Club and SFHS Touchdown Club.

Todd holds a Juris Doctor (1994) and BA in Finance (1989) from the University of Florida. Todd served as his fraternity's President and Treasurer, UF student senator and Greek Council student representative. He was named to the University's Who's Who at UF. As an alumnus, Todd has sat on his fraternity's board of directors, delivered guest lectures at the UF Business, Law and Political Science Schools and led a variety of alumni activities.

Todd has been married to his high school sweetheart, Tracey Jones, for twenty-six years. Tracey and Todd have three sons and one daughter. The family has called South Forsyth County home for twelve years.