

Rep. David Knight
R-130

Biography

Representative David Knight was elected to Georgia House of Representatives in 2004 and was sworn into office in 2005. Knight proudly serves district 130, which includes parts of Spalding, Henry and Lamar counties. He currently serves as the Chairman of the Games, Fish and Parks Committee, and his legislative duties also include service to the memberships of the Appropriations, Rules, Ways and Means, Banks and Banking, Higher Education, and Small Business Development committees.

Born in Warner Robbins, Representative Knight moved to Griffin at an early age, where he was raised and has since made it his home. Representative Knight attended both the University of Georgia and Augusta College, earning a degree in Accounting. He is a Certified Public Accountant and has been practicing for over 20 years.

Representative Knight is active member in his community, where he and his wife are members of the First Baptist Church of Griffin. He also holds membership in the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Georgia Society of Certified Public Accountants, and the Griffin Rotary.

Representative Knight is an avid hunter, fisherman, and enjoys sporting clays. He is happily married to the former Marie Harvey from Lamar County. They are proud parents of John David, who was born in 2013.