

Rep. Dominic LaRiccia
R-169

Biography

Dominic LaRiccia is 43 years old and a lifelong resident of Douglas and Coffee County where he resides with the loves of his life, wife Karrie and three children Joshua 18, Luke 9, and Olivia 7.

Dominic is co-owner of Sunbelt Termite and Pest Control serving more than 30 counties in South Georgia.

He has also served for 14 years as an active member, past President and Secretary of the Douglas Exchange Club where he currently serves as Chairman for the Exchange Club's July 4th Freedom Fest and Fireworks Display.

Dominic has served on various boards such as the Douglas Coffee County Recreation Department, Fellowship of Christian Athletes and on the operating committee of the First Academy Christian School at First Baptist Church of Douglas where he is also a member, deacon and 9th Grade Sunday School teacher.

On November 4th Dominic was elected to the Georgia House of Representatives District 169 which is comprised of Bacon, Coffee and Jeff Davis Counties.