

Rep. Roger Lane
R-167

Biography

State Representative Roger Lane (R-Darien) represents the 167th in the Georgia House of Representatives. Being first elected in 2004, Representative Lane was raised on a dairy farm in Townsend, Georgia and has been married to Leigh Ann Eason, from Ludowici, for forty-four years. They have three adult children: Buddy, Stephanie and Jamie and their spouses and are the proud grandparents of twelve granddaughters.

Representative Lane is an attorney with an office in Glynn County since 1976. Lane is also a businessman having been a founding Director of Sapelo National Bank and having served as Chairman of the Board of Directors for eight years. Lane graduated from Darien High School, then attended Brunswick Junior College, and graduated from Georgia State University with a Bachelor of Business Administration Degree. He also completed his Juris Doctorate degree at Mercer University. He was recently inducted into the University System of Georgia Hall of Fame for outstanding Alumnae, one of only three so honored.

While serving in the Legislature for the past six years, Representative Lane serves on the following committees:

- Chairman of the State and Congressional Reapportionment Committee;
- Member of the State Institutions and Properties Committee;
- Member of the Natural Resources Committee;
- Member of the Code Revision Committee;
- Subcommittee Chair of the Judiciary Committee

Representative Lane has also served in the leadership of the Republican Caucus by serving as a deputy whip and has been honored by the Glynn County Republican Party as the outstanding freshman legislator during his first term of service. He recently was recognized by the Association of County Commissioners of Georgia as one of the Outstanding Legislators of the 2010 Session.

Representative Lane has been active in his community, having served as a School Board member for eight years representing St. Simons and Jekyll Island. He has also served as State Court Solicitor for McIntosh County for three years. Representative Lane is also a long time member of the Brunswick Glynn County Chamber of Commerce and has served as a Trustee for the Darien United Methodist Church and as a member of the Board for the St. Simons United Methodist Church.

