

Rep. Rahn Mayo
D-84

Biography

Representative Rahn Mayo is a man on a mission, who was a committed community servant for many years prior to entering electoral politics. Mayo represents House District 84 located in DeKalb County, and was initially elected to the Georgia House of Representatives in 2008, during one of the most exciting election cycles in U.S. history.

Representative Mayo's leadership has enhanced the quality of education for Georgia high school students through a Youth Development Initiative, which educates students in the areas of life skills and legal rights. Representative Mayo is a frequent guest speaker at public schools and continues to inspire and motivate students to achieve excellence. He is a strong supporter of the Future Business Leaders of America program and a former mentor with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metro Atlanta.

Representative Mayo has proudly sponsored legislation to address home foreclosures, transportation infrastructure funding, driver safety, charter school accountability and expanding access to the HOPE Scholarship. Representative Mayo was recognized as an emerging leader and selected by the American Council of Young Political Leaders, to serve as a delegate in Australia for a foreign exchange program. Mayo serves as an appointed member on the Georgia Council for the Arts, which provides grant funding for programs and services statewide, preserving cultural heritage and increasing access to high quality arts experiences. He is also an appointed member of the legislative oversight committee for the Georgia World Congress Center.

Representative Mayo earned a Bachelor's degree in Communications from Howard University and is currently pursuing a Master's Degree in Business Administration at Georgia State University. In addition to serving in the Georgia General Assembly, Representative Mayo is a small business owner and energy management consultant. He is a member of the Ray of Hope Christian Church, in Decatur, and Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity. Rahn Mayo is a proud resident of DeKalb County, Georgia, and continues to be a strong voice of leadership for the 21st Century, who possesses the insight and vision to continue moving us forward!