

Rep. Tom McCall
District 33

Biography

State Representative Tom McCall (R-House District 33) has served in the House of Representatives since 1994 and is proud to carry on his family's history of public service by representing Elbert and Lincoln counties and portions of Madison, Wilkes and Columbia counties. Rep. McCall continues a family tradition that dates back more than 75 years. His grandfather, Thomas Francis "Bud" Kelley, served in the Georgia House of Representatives from 1933 – 1937 and served in the Georgia Senate from 1939–1941.

Currently, Rep. McCall is the Chairman of the Agriculture and Consumer Affairs Committee and serves on the Natural Resources and Environment, Transportation and Game, Fish and Parks committees.

In recognition of his long record of service, Rep. McCall has received numerous achievement and distinguished service awards from various groups for his dedication to agriculture and natural resources. He served on the State Farm Bureau Board for 13 years and recently was bestowed the National Honorary American Future Farmers of America Degree.

Outside of the State Capitol, Rep. McCall is a farmer on his Elberton family grain and livestock farm. He graduated from Elbert County High School and went on to achieve an Agriculture Degree from Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College (ABAC) and later obtained a Bachelor's degree in Agronomy with a focus in Animal Science from the University of Georgia.

Rep. McCall and his wife, Jane, are the proud parents of three children: Bud, Al and Katie. Their son, Al, is married to Rachel, and they have two sons named Winn and Wilkes. Their daughter, Katie, studied Early Childhood Education with an emphasis on Special Education, leading her to begin the Friends Helping Friends organization in honor of her brother Bud's memory, who sadly passed away in 2000. She is married to Bristol Archer and teaches PE at Elbert County Elementary. Jane is a retired kindergarten teacher and is Rep. McCall's chief political advisor. While he is gratified by the success he has enjoyed in his farming and political endeavors, his greatest joy is in his family.
