HR 1523. By Representatives Coomer of the 14th, Holcomb of the 81st, Willard of the 51st and Atwood of the 179th:

A RESOLUTION creating the Joint Study Committee to Review and Recommend Necessary Changes to the Georgia Code of Military Justice; and for other purposes.

The following Committee substitute was read and adopted:

A RESOLUTION

Creating the House Study Committee to Review and Recommend Necessary Changes to the Georgia Code of Military Justice; and for other purposes.

WHEREAS, the Georgia National Guard, which consists of the Georgia Army National Guard, the Georgia Air National Guard, and the Georgia State Defense Force, operates under the supervision of the Georgia Department of Defense and provides ready and relevant military forces to combatant commanders, supports homeland defense, and performs other activities, and in doing so, members of the Georgia National Guard serve dual missions in their federal and state roles; and

WHEREAS, the Georgia National Guard totals over 13,000 members and operates under a state budget of approximately $9 million and a federal budget of $552 million annually; and

WHEREAS, although historically the Georgia National Guard's primary function has been to respond to state emergencies and other exigencies and to prepare for its federal missions, its operational tempo, both domestic and abroad, has dramatically increased over the last 13 years under both its federal and state status; and

WHEREAS, as a result, the Georgia National Guard has conversed from a strategic reserve to an operational force similar to that of its active duty counterparts in which members of the Georgia National Guard often work side-by-side with active duty members of the United States Army and the United States Air Force; and

WHEREAS, members of the Georgia National Guard fall under the control of the federal Uniform Code of Military Justice when in federal service; and

WHEREAS, although the current Georgia Code of Military Justice was enacted in 1955 and has not been substantially amended or updated, the culture and demands of military service in the Georgia National Guard has transformed precipitously; and

WHEREAS, although the Georgia Code of Military Justice was, at the time, based on the federal Uniform Code of Military Justice, the federal Uniform Code of Military Justice has been substantially revised since 1955; and

WHEREAS, recognizing the changing role of the National Guard among the various states and the differences among the states in their various state codes of military justice and the possibility that current state military justice codes may be inadequate to ensure and maintain good order and discipline, the United States Congress required, in accordance with the Bob Stump National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2003, the National Guard Bureau to appoint a working group of National Guard judge advocates and senior military justice experts to review and develop a Model State Code of Military Justice; and

WHEREAS, the National Guard Bureau formed a working group which reviewed the various state codes of military justice; and found that the various states' legal and administrative authority to conduct courts-martial and nonjudicial punishment varied greatly and that a number of National Guard jurisdictions lacked modern and effective laws and procedures necessary to have a viable military justice system; and

WHEREAS, the working group drafted a Model State Code of Military Justice which provides a comprehensive approach towards increasing uniformity among the states for court-martial and nonjudicial punishment proceedings for the National Guard when not in federal service and to provide similarity to those provisions applicable to active duty military members; and

WHEREAS, the Model State Code of Military Justice, in large measure, closely follows the organization and provisions of the federal Uniform Code of Military Justice; and

WHEREAS, in 2005, the Department of Defense approved the Model State Code of Military Justice and have recommended that all states adopt such to provide the following benefits: (1) uniformity; (2) enhancing military discipline; (3) closer conformity with the federal Uniform Code of Military Justice; (4) strengthening military justice training; (5) elimination of interstate jurisdictional issues; (6) a useful commander's tool to further mission accomplishment; (7) a step forward in the National Guard's vision of being ready, reliable, and relevant; and (8) increased credibility with the active duty components and the public; and

WHEREAS, at least 14 states have already adopted and enacted a version of the Model State Code of Military Justice and 23 other states are actively reviewing such for possible enactment; and

WHEREAS, this state should undertake a comprehensive study to consider whether enactment of the Model State Code of Military Justice, or some parts thereof, would benefit the Georgia National Guard, could help facilitate total force integration and interoperability, could prepare members being called to federal status to meet their responsibilities and uphold the standards required under the federal Uniform Code of Military Justice, or could provide any other beneficial purpose.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that there is created the House Study Committee to Review and Recommend Necessary Changes to the Georgia Code of Military Justice to be composed of three members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives. The Speaker of the House of Representatives shall designate a member of the committee as chairperson of the committee. The chairperson shall call all meetings of the committee.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Adjutant General of Georgia and his or her staff shall work with the committee to provide information and data as required by the committee to facilitate its work and to assist in the formulation of its recommendations.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the members of the committee shall receive the allowances authorized for legislative members of interim legislative committees but shall receive the same for not more than five days unless additional days are authorized. The funds necessary to carry out the provisions of this resolution shall come from the funds appropriated to the House of Representatives. In the event the committee makes a report of its findings and recommendations, with suggestions for proposed legislation, if any, such report shall be made on or before December 1, 2014, at which time the committee shall stand abolished.

The report of the Committee, which was favorable to the adoption of the Resolution, by substitute, was agreed to.
