

Rep. Betty Price
(R-48)

Biography

Representative Betty Price was elected to the Georgia House of Representatives in a special election in July of 2015 to represent House district 48, which includes the largest portion of Roswell and some of Alpharetta.

Representative Betty Price graduated with honors from Cocoa Beach High School in Florida, earned her B.A. from Pomona College in California and received a scholarship to McGill University in Montreal, where later was conferred her Doctor of Medicine (M.D.) degree. She completed her internship and residency training at the Emory University Affiliated Hospitals, and met her future husband, Tom, a fellow physician, at Grady Memorial Hospital. She worked for over 20 years in the medical field practicing Anesthesiology in Roswell and Marietta. She served on the Boards of the Medical Association of Atlanta and the Medical Association of Georgia and is a past president of the American Medical Women's Association in Atlanta. For her service, she received the President's Award from the Medical Association of Atlanta and a Phenomenal Women of North Fulton award. Rep. Price was recently given the "1849 Friend of Medicine Award" by the Medical Association of Georgia for outstanding service to patients and physicians in 2017.

Rep. Price is an active member of her community, having served over 5 years on the Roswell City Council and as Mayor Pro Tem of Roswell. Representative Price has also served on the boards of numerous non-profits in North Fulton, and 10 years on the Fulton County Board of Health. She is an active member of the Roswell Woman's Club and the Roswell Rotary Club. She was awarded a lifetime membership in the Roswell Junior Woman's Club. She is involved with the Georgia Ensemble Theatre, the Roswell Historical Society and its cemetery restoration efforts, the Chattahoochee Nature Center, Friends of Bulloch Hall, the Child Development Association, the Drake House transitional housing, Roswell Inc., and the North Fulton Poverty Task Force. She has also led several organizations in Washington, D.C. during her recent time as a congressional spouse.

She and her husband Tom Price, M.D., former Health and Human Services Secretary for the President, reside in Roswell and have one adult son who is a musician. They worship at Johnson Ferry Baptist Church.

In 2017 Rep. Betty Price was tapped as a Deputy Whip for the GOP caucus, elected Secretary of the Fulton County Delegation, and serves on the following committees in the Georgia House of Representatives.

- Health and Human Services
- Governmental Affairs, Elections sub-committee
- State Planning and Community Affairs
- Economic Development and Tourism
- Judiciary Non-Civil

Rep. Price welcomes your concerns, issues, and requests for state related constituent services. Students age 12 and over are invited to serve as a page for a day at the General Assembly. Please contact the office for appointments or further information at 404-656-0202.