

Rep. Ed Setzler
District 35

Biography

Representative Ed Setzler is a businessman, veteran and father of four who has served northwest Cobb County in the Georgia House of Representatives since 2005. Committed to the principles of personal freedom, free markets and constitutionally limited government, Ed currently serves as the chairman of the House Science & Technology Committee and serves on the Judiciary Non-civil, Education, Transportation, Appropriations, Legislative & Congressional Reapportionment and Rules committees.

In addition to serving in the state legislature, Ed is a leader in the architecture/engineering industry, where he has directed nationwide design and business development programs for more than a decade. A graduate of the US Army Ranger School, Ed earned a B.S. in Physics from Furman University in 1992 and served as a U.S. Army officer for nine years with leadership assignments in Europe, North Africa and the Persian Gulf.

Ed and his family are active in a variety of community organizations and attend the St. Stephen Orthodox Christian Church in Hiram, GA.